GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 6th September 1921 :—

No. 6 of 1921.

A Bill to provide that, when fire-arms are used for the purpose of dispersing an assembly, preliminary warning shall, in certain circumstances, be given.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide in the manner hereinafter appearing that warning shall, in certain circumstances, be given before an assembly is fired on for the purpose of causing such assembly to disperse; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 192 .

* Insertion of new section 131-A in Act V of 1898.

2. To the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, after section 131, the following section shall be added, namely:— V of 1898.

Use of fire-arms after warning

"131-A. Where under the provisions of this Chapter any person determines to disperse any such assembly by the use of fire arms, such person shall, before directing that the assembly be fired on, warn the assembly by such means, if any, as may be available at the moment that, unless it disperses forthwith, it will be fired on."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to give effect to the principle stated in part (e) of the Resolution moved by the Hon'ble Mr. V. Srinivasa Sastri on the 3rd March 1921 in the Council of State, viz., that when fire-arms are used for the purpose of dispersing an assembly, preliminary warning should, where possible, be given.

Executive instructions to this effect are already in existence, but, in view of the terms of the Resolution, it is considered desirable to amend the law so as to meet the recommendation made by the Council of State, which was accepted by Government.

The 20th August 1921.

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of State on the 6th September 1921 :—

No. 7 of 1921.

A Bill further to amend the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871 ; It is hereby enacted I of 1871 as follows :—

Short title and commencement. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Cattle-trespass (Amendment) Act, 192 .

(2) This section shall come into force at once.

(3) The rest of the Act shall come into force in any Province or part thereof on such date as the Local Government may by notification in the local official Gazette, appoint.

Substitution of new section for section 12, Act I of 1871. 2. For section 12 of the Cattle trespass Act, 1871, the following section I of 1871. shall be substituted, namely :—

Fines for cattle impounded. "12. For every head of cattle impounded as aforesaid, the pound-keeper shall levy a fine in accordance with the scale for the time being prescribed by the Local Government in this behalf by notification in the official Gazette. Different scales may be prescribed for different local areas.

All fines so levied shall be sent to the Magistrate of the district through such officer as the Local Government may direct.

A list of the fines and of the rates of charge for feeding and watering cattle shall be posted in a conspicuous place on or near to every pound."

Repeal. 3. Section 5 of the Cattle-trespass Act (1871) Amendment Act, 1881, is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the Bill is to amend section 12 of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871 (I of 1871), so as to give discretion to the Local Governments to regulate the scale of fines to be imposed for the cattle impounded, according to the varying circumstances of each province by notifications to be issued from time to time. At present a fixed scale is laid down, and Local Governments can only vary the fines by doubling them in the case of habitual trespass The scale was fixed in 1871 and is regarded as now out of date. It is further considered that control over the scale of fines to be levied should in this respect be devolved upon Local Governments, so as to afford greater elasticity in the administration of the Act.

The 1st September 1921.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 6th September 1921 :—

No. 17 of 1921.

A Bill further to amend the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 ; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XXVI of 1881.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment) Act, 192

Amendment of sections 83 and 85, Act XXVI of 1881. 2. In sections 83 and 85 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (hereinafter referred to as "the said Act"), for the word "twenty-four" the word "forty-eight" shall be substituted. XXVI of 1881.

Amendment of section 75-A, Act XXVI of 1881. 3. In section 75-A of the said Act for the words "for payment" the words "acceptance or payment" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (XXVI of 1881), was recently amended by the addition of section 75-A, on the lines of section 46 (3) of the English Bills of Exchange Act, 1882, as as to make provision excusing delay in making presentment for payment when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder. It is now considered desirable that section 75-A should be extended in its scope as as to excuse delay in presentment for acceptance.

2. It has been represented that the time-limit imposed by the Act within which bills are to be accepted after presentment is too short and causes considerable inconveniences and hardship. It is accordingly proposed to amend sections 83 and 85 of the Act so as to extend the time-limit laid down therein from twenty-four hours to forty-eight hours.

The object of the present Bill is to give effect to the above proposals.

The 16th August 1921.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 6th September 1921 :—

No. 18 of 1921.

A Bill further to amend the Carriers Act, 1865, in order to empower the Governor-General in Council to make by notification additions to the Schedule to that Act, and to free a common carrier from liability under the Act for loss or damage, arising from the negligence of himself or of any of his agents or servants, in respect of any property which, being of the value of over one hundred rupees and of the description contained in the Schedule to that Act, has not been declared in accordance with the provisions of section 3.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Carriers Act, 1865, in manner hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows :— III of 1865.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Carriers (Amendment) Act, 1921.

Amendment of section 8, Act III of 1865. 2. In section 8 of the Carriers Act, 1865 (hereinafter called "the said Act"),—

(1) the words "negligence or" shall be omitted, and

(2) after the words "agents or servants" the following words shall be added, namely :—

"and shall also be liable to the owner for loss or damage to any such property, other than property to which the provisions of section 3 apply and in respect of which the declaration required by that section has not been made, where such loss or damage has arisen from the negligence of the carrier or any of his agents or servants."

Insertion of new section 11 in Act III of 1865. 3. After section 10 of the said Act the following section shall be added, namely :—

Power to Governor-General in Council to add to the Schedule. "11. The Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, add to the list of articles contained in the Schedule to this Act, and the Schedule shall, on the issue of any such notification, be deemed to have been amended accordingly."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been represented that the benefits conferred upon the common carrier by section 8 of the Indian Carriers Act (III of 1865), are to a large extent rendered nugatory by the provision of section 8 of the same Act, and that whereas the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (IX of 1890), allows the Government of India to add to the Schedule of excepted articles other articles of special value, the Indian Carriers Act has no such provision, with the result that the Schedule to the Act does not at present include such expensive commodities as opium, jade, amber, hemp, rubber and leathers. The object of the present Bill is to modify the liability of the common carrier, on the lines of English Carriers Act of 1830, in the case of scheduled articles not declared under section 3 of the Act, for loss or damage arising from negligence on his part or on that of his agents or servants, his responsibility in respect of criminal acts remaining as at present, and to take power to make additions to the Schedule.

O. A. INNES.

The 18th August 1921.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 5th September 1921:—

No. 19 of 1921.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Post Office Act, 1898.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Post Office Act, 1898; It is hereby enacted VI of 1898. as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Post Office (Amendment) Act 192 .

Amendment of section 24, Act VI of 1898. 2. In section 24 of the Indian Post Office Act, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the third proviso shall be omitted. VI of 1898.

Insertion of a new section 24-A in Act VI of 1898. 3. After section 24 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Power to deliver such articles to Customs authority. "24-A. The Governor General in Council may, by general or special order, empower any officer of the Post Office, specified in such order to deliver any postal article, received from beyond the limits of British India and suspected to contain any thing liable to duty, to such Customs authority as may be specified in the said order, and such Customs authority shall deal with such article in accordance with the provisions of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, or of any other law for the time being in force." VIII of 1878

Amendment of section 87, Act VI of 1898. 4. In section 87 of said Act, after the words "this Act" the words "or of any other Act for the time being in force" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Clause 208 of the Indian Post and Telegraph Guide, which is based on Article 18, clause 3 (2), of the Principal Convention of Rome, prohibits the transmission by the Foreign letter post of articles liable to customs duty. For many years past it has been realised that this prohibition is being systematically evaded and the loss in customs duty has now been found to be very considerable.

The present method of assessing to duty dutiable articles contained in the letter post is prescribed by section 24 of the Post Office Act, 1898 (VI of 1898). Under the third proviso to the section Customs authorities are empowered to detain and open parcels at the port of entry for the purpose of levying duties of customs. In practice, parcels are assessed at the principal customs port which is nearest to the place of destination, i.e., all parcels are not detained at the port of landing, but many are forwarded to other customs ports for the purpose of assessment before transmission to the destination. A similar procedure is not however authorised in respect of the Foreign letter mail the treatment of which is strictly limited by section 24 and the first two provisos to that section. Under this section letters must be sent to the post office of delivery, and on arrival there, those suspected to contain dutiable articles must be opened in the presence of the addressees for the purpose of assessment. Post officials, however, cannot be expected to be expert in the matter of appraisement, and consequently, in uncountry stations, where expert customs assistance is not available it is certain that Government suffers a heavy loss of revenue. It is accordingly proposed to amend sections 24 and 87 of the Post Office Act, 1898, so as to empower the Postal authorities to detain at the port of landing or other place at which they may be received any postal articles suspected to contain anything liable to customs duty, and to hand them over to the Customs authorities to be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 (VIII of 1878), or of any other law for the time being in force.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 5th September 1921 :—

No. 90 of 1921.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Marine Act, 1887.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Marine Act, 1887 ; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XIV of 1887.

Short title. 1 This Act may be called the Indian Marine (Amendment) Act, 1921.

Amendment of section 52 (1), Act XIV of 1887. 2. In the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 52 of the Indian Marine Act, 1887 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words "by, or with the previous sanction of, the Governor-General in Council" the words "by the Governor-General in Council or by the Director of Marine" shall be substituted. XIV of 1887.

Amendment of section 56 (2), Act XIV of 1887. 3. In sub-section (2) of section 56 of the said Act, the words "with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council" shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 52 (1) of the Indian Marine Act, 1887, requires the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council to the assembly of an Indian Marine Court for the trial of a Gazetted Officer of the Royal Indian Marine. In order to obtain the necessary personnel for the trial of a Royal Indian Marine Officer, it is usually necessary that two ships should be in port at the same time ; especially in view of the fact that the Commander of the ship on which the accused is serving is generally the prosecutor and consequently not available as a member of the Court. It has happened in the past that the delay consequent on having to obtain the sanction of the Governor-General in Council has resulted in an opportunity for the assembly of the Court having been missed. This necessitates a delay which may extend to several weeks before another opportunity arises. To prevent lengthy periods of suspense to the accused and to obviate this decided inconvenience, it is considered necessary to confer on the Director, Royal Indian Marine, power to convene the Courts in question. The power to confirm the sentences awarded by such Courts will, however, remain, with the Governor-General in Council as at present.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 8th September 1921 :—

No. 21 OF 1921.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Works of Defence Act, 1903.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Works of Defence Act, 1903; It is hereby VII of 1903. enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Works of Defence (Amendment) Act, 192 .

Amendment of section 2, Act VII of 1903. 2. In section 2 of the Indian Works of Defence Act, 1903 (hereinafter VII of 1903. referred to as the said Act), for clauses (c) and (d), the following clauses shall be India substituted, namely :—

"(c) the expression "District" means one of the Districts into which India is, for military purposes for the time being, divided; it includes a Brigade area which does not form part of any District, and any area which the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare to be a District for all or any of the purposes of this Act :

(d) the expression "General Officer Commanding the District" means the officer for the time being in command of the forces in a District."

Amendment of section 7, Act VII of 1903. 3. In section 7 of the said Act—

(a) in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (a), in the first proviso to sub-clause (i) of clause (b), and in sub-clause (ii) of clause (b), for the words "General Officer Commanding the Division" the words "General Officer Commanding the District" shall be substituted; and

(b) in the first proviso to sub-clause (i) of clause (a) and in the second proviso to sub-clause (c) of clause (b), for the words "General Officer Commanding the Division, District or Brigade" the words "General Officer Commanding the District" shall be substituted.

Repeal. 4. So much of the Schedule to the Amending (Army) Act, 1909, as relates V of 1909. to the said Act, is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The amendments of the Indian Works of Defence Act, 1903, which are embodied in this Bill, are of a purely formal nature, and are necessitated by the recent changes in the organization of the Army in India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 15th September 1921 :—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

In clause 2 we have suggested the omission of the words " forfeiture of all his property or to " after the words " liable to ".

We consider that it is better to proceed against the property of an offender under these sections by the imposition of a fine rather than by forfeiture. At present the law does not provide for this, as section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, does not permit of fines being levied on immoveable property. We, therefore, recommend that fines imposed as a result of a conviction under section 121, 121-A or 122 of the Indian Penal Code shall be recoverable from the immoveable property of the offender if they cannot be recovered from his moveable property, and that this be provided for in the Bill for the comprehensive amendment of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, which is at present under consideration. We understand that in England fines can be levied on immoveable property under the law.

Consequent on the amendments made in this Bill we recommend that the necessary consequential amendments be made in Schedule II to the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, to the main Bill for the amendment of that Code, which is now under consideration.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 26th February 1921.

3. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require republication, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to facilitate the enforcement in British India of Maintenance Orders made in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions and Protectorates and vice versa was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 15th September 1921 :—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to facilitate the enforcement in British India of Maintenance Orders made in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions and Protectorates and vice versa was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

Clause 1.—We have added an extent sub-clause to make it clear that this Act will extend only to British India, though it applies in respect of certain orders made elsewhere but enforceable in India.

Clause 2.—Definitions—

(a) The words "other than illegitimate children" have been omitted from the definition of dependants, and the corresponding words of the English Act, viz., "other than an order of affiliation" have been inserted in the definition of "maintenance order" so as to follow the wording of the English Act.

(b) The definition of "maintenance order" has also been amplified to make it clear that such an order includes orders passed by Courts either in the exercise of civil or criminal jurisdiction.

(c) A definition of "proper authority" has been inserted, as it was considered to be incorrect to prescribe by rules the authority of the reciprocating territory, from which communications should be received. The laws passed, or to be passed, in such territories will provide for the proper authority for the transmission of communications. Consequential amendments following this definition have been made in clauses 4, 5, 6 and 7 of the Bill.

(d) The definition of "reciprocating British possession" has been changed into a definition of "reciprocating territory" as the term "British possession," as defined in the General Clauses Act, 1897, does not include the United Kingdom. Consequential amendments have been made throughout the Bill to give effect to this change in definition.

Clause 4, sub-clause (1).—The words "in Council" have been omitted after the words "Governor-General" where they first occur, as, under the English Act, communications have to be addressed to the "Governor" of the possession, and the term "Governor" under the English Interpretation Act, 1889, as applied, means the Governor-General, and not the Governor-General in Council.

Clause 5, marginal heading.—The words "of Summary Courts" have been inserted in the marginal heading to make it clear that the making of provisional orders is confined to Summary Courts.

Clause 6, sub-clause (1).—The words "if such person had wilfully neglected to attend the Court" have been substituted for the words "if a summons had been duly served on the person and he had failed to appear at the hearing," to bring the wording of this sub-clause into conformity with the wording of section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Sub-clause (6).—The words "or to which it was sent for confirmation" have been inserted after the words "was confirmed" in the proviso to this sub-clause, as it is proposed that a Court, which has made a provisional order, may vary or rescind that order after the taking of further evidence before the order has actually been confirmed in the reciprocating possession, and also that it may vary or rescind the order after it has been confirmed.

Sub-clause (7) of clause 6 has been omitted following the provisions of the maintenance sections in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. There is an appeal from an order of maintenance under that Code, and this sub-clause would therefore be misleading. In the absence of any provision for such appeal, we do not consider it desirable that there should be an appeal in the cases dealt with under this clause, which are treated as analogous to maintenance cases dealt with under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Sub-clause (4) of clause 7.—We are of opinion that the clause, as it stood, would perhaps not permit of the confirmation of a provisional order, made for example in the United Kingdom, for a sum greater than Rs. 50 per mensem, which is the limit imposed by section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. The limit for maintenance orders in the case of a wife in the United Kingdom is two pounds a week, and for a child one pound a week. It was considered desirable that it should be open to the Court to enforce provisional orders up to the full amount of the provisional order, but not to increase the order beyond that amount. Amendments to impose a limit as aforesaid have been made in this clause.

Provision has been made in sub-clauses (5) and (6) for the transmission of records in the same manner as is provided in the proviso to sub-clause (3) of clause 6.

Sub-clause (7) of clause 7 has been omitted for the same reason as sub-clause (7) of clause 6.

Clause 8, sub-clause (1).—The words "in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction" have been inserted after the words "High Court" to make it clear that, except in the case of orders executed by Courts of summary jurisdiction, which will be orders for the payment of comparatively small amounts, the procedure in execution will be in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure. The difference in execution procedure in the various High Courts necessitates a double procedure in the Bill so as to cover registration in High Courts possessing only appellate jurisdiction.

A new clause 9 has been inserted, as we think that it is just to a wife or other person, in favour of whom a maintenance order is made, that such person should receive the full amount awarded and not be debited with the costs of transmission, and other incidental charges. Such charges should be borne by the person against whom the order is made.

Clauses 9, 10 and 11 have been re-numbered clauses 10, 11 and 12.

Provision has been made in clause 12, as re-numbered, for the fixing by rules, made by the Governor General in Council, of a scale of costs and charges in connection with things done under this Act. We consider it expedient that the rules in this matter should be made by the Governor General in Council, as there will be communications between British India and countries outside, and the Governor General in Council is in the best position to fix a fair scale of charges in this respect.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 19th February 1921.

3. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require re-publication, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

Power of Summary Courts to make provisional maintenance order against person resident in His Majesty's Dominions outside British India.

6. (1) Where application is made to a Court of summary jurisdiction in British India for a maintenance order against any person, and it is proved that that person is resident in a reciprocating territory, the Court may, in the absence of that person, if after hearing the evidence it is satisfied of the justice of the application, make any such order as it might have made if that person had wilfully neglected to attend the Court; but in such case the order shall be provisional only and shall have no effect unless and until confirmed by a competent Court in such territory.

(2) The evidence of every witness who is examined on any such application shall be reduced to writing, and such deposition shall be read over to, and signed by, him.

(3) Where such an order is made, the Court shall send to the Governor General in Council, for transmission to the proper authority of the reciprocating territory in which the person against whom the order is made is alleged to reside, the depositions so taken and a certified copy of the order together with a statement of the grounds on which the making of the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order is made had been duly served with a summons and had appeared at the hearing and such information as the Court possesses for facilitating the identification of that person and ascertaining his whereabouts.

(4) Where any such provisional order has come before a Court in a reciprocating territory for confirmation, and the order has by that Court been remitted to the Court of summary jurisdiction which made the order for the purpose of taking further evidence, that Court shall, after giving the prescribed notice, proceed to take the evidence in like manner and subject to the like conditions as the evidence in support of the original application.

(5) If it appears to the Court hearing such evidence that the order ought not to have been made, the Court may rescind the order, but in any other case the depositions shall be sent to the Governor General in Council and dealt with in like manner as the original depositions.

(6) The confirmation of an order made under this section shall not affect any power of a Court of summary jurisdiction to vary or rescind that order.

Provided that, on the making of a varying or rescinding order, the Court shall send a certified copy thereof to the Governor General in Council for transmission to the proper authority of the reciprocating territory in which the original order was confirmed, or to which it was sent for confirmation and that, in the case of an order varying the original order, the order shall not have any effect unless and until confirmed in like manner as the original order.

Power of Court of summary jurisdiction to confirm maintenance order made out of British India.

7. (1) Where a maintenance order has been made by a Court in a reciprocating territory and the order is provisional only and has no effect unless and until confirmed by a Court of summary jurisdiction in British India, and a certified copy of the order, together with the depositions of the witnesses and a statement of the grounds on which the order might have been opposed, has been transmitted to the Governor General, and it appears to the Governor General in Council that the person against whom the order has been made is resident in British India, the Governor General in Council may send the said documents to the prescribed officer of a Court of summary jurisdiction, with a requisition that a summons be issued calling upon the person to show cause why that order should not be confirmed, and, upon receipt of such documents and requisition, the Court shall issue such a summons and cause it to be served upon such person.

(2) A summons issued under sub-section (1) shall for all purposes be deemed to be a summons issued by the Court in the exercise of its original criminal jurisdiction.

(3) At the hearing it shall be open to the person to whom the summons was issued to raise any defence which he might have raised in the original proceedings had he been a party thereto, but no other defence, and the certificate from the Court which made the provisional order stating the grounds on which the making of the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order was made had been a party to the proceedings shall be conclusive evidence that those grounds are grounds on which objection may be taken.

(4) If at the hearing the person served with the summons does not appear or, on appearing, fails to satisfy the Court that the order ought not to be confirmed, the Court may, notwithstanding any pecuniary limit imposed on its power by any law for the time being in force in British India confirm the order either without modification or with such modifications as to the Court after hearing the evidence may seem just:

Provided that no sum shall be awarded as maintenance under this section, or shall be recoverable as such, as a sum exceeding that proposed in the provisional order.

(5) If the person to whom the summons was issued appears at the hearing and satisfies the Court that for the purpose of any defence it is necessary to remit the case to the Court which made the provisional order for the taking of any further evidence, the Court may for that purpose send a certified copy of the record to the Governor General in Council for transmission to that Court through the proper authority of the reciprocating territory, and may adjourn the proceedings.

(6) Where a provisional order has been confirmed under this section, it may be varied or rescinded in like manner as if it had originally been made by the confirming Court, and where on an application for recission or variation the Court is satisfied that it is necessary to remit the case to the Court which made the provisional order for the purpose of taking any further evidence, the Court may for that purpose send a certified copy of the record to the Governor General in Council for transmission to that Court through the proper authority of the reciprocating territory and may adjourn the proceedings.

Enforcement of maintenance orders.

8 (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where an order has been registered under this Act in a High Court, the order shall, from the date of such registration, be of the same force and effect, and all proceedings may be taken thereon as if it had been an order originally obtained in the High Court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction, or as such Civil Court subordinate to that High Court as may be named by the High Court in that behalf and that Court shall have power to enforce the order accordingly.

(3) A Court of summary jurisdiction in which an order has been registered under this Act or by which an order has been confirmed under this Act, and the officers of such Court, shall have such powers and perform such duties, for the purpose of enforcing the order, as may be prescribed.

Payment of charges for transmission of sums awarded as maintenance and other costs and charges

9. A Court in registering or confirming an order for maintenance in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall direct that the charges for the transmission to the Court, from which the order has been received or in which the provisional order has been made, as the case may be, of the sum awarded as maintenance shall be borne by the person against whom the order has been so made or confirmed, and shall be recovered from him in addition to the sum awarded as maintenance and in addition to and in the same manner as such other costs and charges as may be awarded or levied by the Court.

Proof of documents signed by officers of Court.

10. For the purposes of this Act, any document purporting to be signed by a judge or officer of a Court outside British India shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been so signed without proof of the signature or judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed it, and the officer of a Court by whom a document is signed shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been the proper officer of the Court to sign the document.

Depositions to be evidence.

11. Depositions taken in a Court in any reciprocating territory may, for the purposes of this Act, be received in evidence in proceedings before Courts of summary jurisdiction under this Act.

Rule-making power.

12. The Governor General in Council may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the purposes of this Act, and in particular may make rules for the levy of the costs or charges for anything done under this Act and for all matters which are directed or permitted to be prescribed.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th September 1921 :—

No. 22 of 1921.

A Bill to amend the Hindu Law relating to exclusion from inheritance of certain classes of heirs, and to remove certain doubts

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Hindu Law relating to exclusion from inheritance of certain classes of heirs, and to remove certain doubts; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, commencement and application.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Exclusion from Inheritance Act, 1921 ;

(2) It shall come into force on the ; and

(3) It shall apply to all Provinces of India, except Bengal.

Persons not to be excluded from inheritance or share in joint-family property.

2. Notwithstanding any rule of Hindu Law or custom to the contrary, no person governed by the Hindu Law shall be excluded from inheritance or from a share in joint-family property by reason only of any disease, deformity, physical or mental defect.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Certain classes of persons have been excluded from inheritance presumably on the ground that their present condition is due to sins in the former birth and that they are therefore not entitled to share in the patrimony; without questioning the soundness of this reason of the rule, I am of opinion that in the times that we live in such grounds of exclusion should not be allowed to deprive a person of temporal rights : These persons stand in greater need of assistance than their more favoured brethren who can earn their living. Public opinion has expressed itself strongly against the disability which the present state of the Hindu Law imposes on them.

My reason for excluding Bengal from the operation of the Act is based on the opposition which the motion for codifying Hindu Law met from the Bengal Representatives in the Legislative Assembly. It may be that the Members who spoke on that occasion only expressed their individual views and did not expound the collective opinion of that province. In that case the clause relating to the exclusion of Bengal may be modified in the Select Committee. If on the other hand Bengal is as orthodox as it has been represented to be, by seeking to apply the provisions of the Bill to that province, the passing of the measure so far as the other provinces are concerned may be jeopardised. This is my reason for excluding Bengal.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th September 1921:—

No. 23 of 1921.

A Bill to prescribe a registered instrument as necessary for a valid adoption.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prescribe a registered instrument as necessary for a valid adoption; It is hereby enacted as follows:

Short title, commencement and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Adoption (Registration) Act, 192 ;

(2) It shall come into force on the ; and

(3) It extends to the whole of British India.

Definitions.

2. In this Act—

"adoption" means the adoption of a son or any other relative permissible by any law for the time being in force in British India; and

"attested" includes attestation of an instrument by a witness to whom the executant had immediately after its execution admitted that fact.

Adoption to be by registered deed.

3. No adoption by any person is valid unless it is evidenced by a registered instrument executed by the person making the adoption or some other person duly empowered in that behalf and attested by at least two witnesses.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As far back as 1856 the Privy Council insisted upon the necessity of having a contemporaneous reliable record of an adoption (6 W.R. 109 P.C.) and more recently, it made a point of the absence of a deed of adoption (44 C. 201, 205 P.C.). The fact that adoptions usually affect property of some, and sometimes of great value, and the fact that oral evidence adduced to prove such adoptions is not always free from suspicion or doubt, occasioning at times failure of justice, sufficiently justify this measure. Moreover, most transfers of any value are now compulsorily registrable, and there is no reason why an adoption should not now be also compulsorily registrable.

It is proposed to entrust the administration of the Fund to a Lac Association consisting of members representing European and Indian shippers, manufacturers and brokers. Those interested in the lac industry are unanimous in recommending that the proposed legislation should be undertaken.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

On the 21st March 1921 a Committee was appointed to examine the Indian Press Act, 1910, the Newspapers (Incitements to Offences) Act, 1908, and the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867, and to report whether any of those enactments should be repealed or modified, and, if so, to what extent. The recommendations made by the Committee are fully explained in their Report which has been published. The present Bill is designed to give effect to these recommendations. Provision has been made in the Bill to render it unnecessary to declare anew forfeitures already made.

Opportunity has, at the same time, been taken to make two small changes in section 5 (1) of the Press and Registration of Books Act to meet the inconvenience, represented to the Committee, which results from the wording of that section. The alterations are intended to enable a declaration under the Act to be made at the place of printing, where the place of printing and publishing a paper differ, or at the place of residence of the printer or publisher, and to allow the printer and publisher to appear before the Magistrate, for the purpose of making a declaration, through an authorised representative.

In the case of such municipal councils as are referred to in section 366 (a) and which have been constituted under the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, before the first day of November 1921, the term of office of elected councillors whose terms would, by operation of clause (b) (i) of that section, expire on the first day of November 1921, the first day of November 1922 and the first day of November 1923, shall, notwithstanding the provisions of that section or of any other section of the said Act, expire on the first day of November 1922, the first day of November 1923, and the first day of November 1924, respectively.

"(3) On or as soon as may be after the reconstitution of the council as provided in sub-section (2), a meeting shall be held on a day and at a time fixed by the chairman, and, if not held on that day, shall be held on some subsequent day fixed by the chairman

"(a) for the ascertainment by lot (or, if the Local Government so direct, otherwise than by lot) of one-third the number of elective seats to be vacated at noon on the first day of November of the year following that in which the council is reconstituted as provided in sub-section (2) and of one-third more such seats to be vacated at noon on the first day of November of the year following that in which the first third of the seats are vacated; the remaining elective seats shall, notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, be vacated only at noon on the first day of November of the year following that in which the second third of the elective seats are vacated and the councillors elected for the total number of elective seats or the councillors elected in their places in casual vacancies shall hold office until the dates, so ascertained, on which their respective seats are vacated; and

Report of Select Committee, etc., to be presented to the Legislative Council of the Governor of Madras.

To

THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

WE, the undersigned members of the Select Committee appointed to consider the Bill to amend Madras Act IV of 1919 (the Madras City Municipal Act, 1919), have the honour to submit the following report.

2. The Bill was published in the Fort St. George Gazette, in English, Tamil, Telugu and Hindustani languages on 3rd May 1921.

3. No representations were received and no witnesses presented themselves for examination.

4. We refer below to two of the alterations made in the Bill which are of sufficient importance to call for special mention. The other alterations made by us consist in the substitution of the word "rule" for "section" in clauses 2 and 3 of the Bill.

5. Clause 2.—We consider it necessary that the collection of the tax which prevailed prior to the enhancement, for the revision of which an application is made should not be suspended pending disposal of the revision application. While a suspension of the collection of the entire tax pending disposal of the application will, we have reason to believe, seriously retard collection work and affect the revenues of the Corporation, there is no hardship in requiring a person who objects to an enhancement of the assessment to continue to pay the tax previously paid by him. We have altered clause 2 of the Bill so as to provide for the collection of such tax. An opinion has been expressed that even without such provision, the Corporation executive would not be debarred from collecting the tax previously in force. But we consider it advisable to place the question beyond doubt. We have made similar provision for the collection of the tax in cases in which the tax is levied for the first time.

6. Clause 3.—Under this clause the tax appealed against has to be paid beforehand. But where the tax is recoverable in two half-yearly instalments, it appears to us that it should be sufficient if the half-yearly instalment under the order appealed against is paid. This is sufficient under the existing law—vide the explanation to the existing rule 13 of Schedule IV of the Act—and we have inserted a similar explanation under rule 15 of the schedule as proposed to be amended by clause 3 of the Bill.

7. We consider that the alterations made by us are material and that the Bill as revised by us should be republished in English and in Tamil, Telugu and Hindustani languages.

BILL No. 4 OF 1921.

A Bill to amend Madras Act No. IV of 1919.

(As amended by the Select Committee.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Madras City Municipal Act of 1919; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras City Municipal Amendment Act of 1921.

(2) It shall come into force immediately.

2. In rule 13 of Part V of Schedule IV of the said Act the word "and" at the end of clause (a) (ii) and the whole of clause (b) with its proviso and explanation shall be omitted and the following explanation shall be added:—

Explanation.—The preferring or pendency of an application for revision shall not (a) bar the collection or (b) operate as a stay of proceedings to enforce the payment of the assessment prevailing prior to the proposed enhancement or of any tax levied for the first time.

3. In rule 15 of Part V of Schedule IV of the said Act after the word "decision" in clause (ii) insert the words "and the tax has been paid within the said period" and add the following explanation:—

Explanation.—In the case of a tax leviable by half-yearly instalments the requirements of clause (ii) as to payment of the tax shall be deemed to have been satisfied if the half-yearly instalment due under the order appealed against has been paid.
